COMMENTS FOR GROUP

Very well written and insightful report; very interesting project with good intuition of research topic choice; it clearly shows lot of individual and team work, with a good understanding of the underlying AI; the idea is interesting and it has been developed in an effective way; the design is insightful (although it is very difficult to turn theory into practice but good final results and visions); good organisation that reflects a stimulating and well balanced presentation (good partition of work); the report is formally complete. Negative aspects: it needs more technical descriptions about results, more text, more examples (perhaps more case study/examples needed), more figures (perhaps also a visual abstract) about results with longer captions, longer bibliography.
